Rue de Rome 1 | Shane BOS |
| B2 - C1 | EXPLORING AND DEVELOPING ACADEMIC ENGLISH: Oral seminar skills
Spring workshop
Group A (UE-I01.00252/R021.0294)
Group B (UE-I01.00253/R021.0295)
*open to B2 and C1 | This content-driven, interactive workshop-format is aimed at students from across the university who need oral Academic English and can take responsibility for their own learning. It offers spontaneous and prepared speaking with a focus on seminar skills (and therefore some writing). If you want to develop engaging questions, examine texts & ideas, synthesise information, learn new words & concepts, co-construct a debate and give a researched oral (co-) presentation this is for you. Higher-intermediate B2+ is a learning plateau on which fluency, complexity and/or accuracy tasks may have to be tackled. Speaking here involves discussions, oral presentations and experiencing yourself as an independent user of English at university. | Tuesday / mardi / Dienstag

| B2 | ENGLISH FOR MASTERS STUDENTS B
UE-I01.00294/R021.0293
*open to B2, C1 | This course focuses on the most important English speaking and writing needs of Master’s students with English as an additional language. It aims to make your speech and writing clearer, more concise, more compelling, and more appropriate to academic/scientific situations. Part II focuses on presenting, discussing, and commenting on information, critiquing material and situations, and writing in a narrative style. | Friday / vendredi / Freitag
8:15 – 10:00 | 3 | 3.16, MIS 10
Rue de Rome 1 | Tisa RETFALVI-SCHAEER |
| C1 - C2 | SCOTTISH ENGLISH: CONTEMPORARY TOPICS
Spring workshop
UE-I01.00254/R021.0296
*open to B2+, C1 and C2 | The aim of this course is to give advanced speakers of English an opportunity to expand their ability to speak fluently about intellectually challenging topics in both an academic context (research issues, issues in higher education, literacy, etc.) as well as in broader contexts such as health care, journalism, environmental issues and human rights. The course will be interactive in nature requiring a high level of critical engagement. Students will have the opportunity to practice appropriate rhetorical skills during debates and discussions, and will lead the class in a guided activity focusing on an approved topic of their choice. | Wednesday / mercredi / Mittwoch
