Portfolio européen des langues

Le Portfolio européen des langues remplit deux tâches. Il est, à la fois, instrument d'information et compagnon de route pendant l'apprentissage. Il doit, d'une part, informer des connaissances linguistiques et interculturelles d'une manière complète, transparente et comparable au niveau international et, d'autre part, inciter à l'apprentissage des langues et le stimuler. Il s'appuie sur le système de référence pour l'apprentissage des langues, élaboré par le Conseil de l'Europe («Common European Framework of Reference» / «Cadre européen commun de référence»).

Le Portfolio européen des langues est composé de trois parties: le Passeport de langues, la Biographie d'apprentissage et le Dossier.

Le Passeport de langues donne une vision d'ensemble sur l'état actuel des connaissances linguistiques et sur les certificats ou attestations correspondants.

La Biographie d'apprentissage documente l'histoire personnelle d'apprentissage linguistique, renseigne sur l'enseignement linguistique suivi, sur les objectifs personnels d'apprentissage de même que sur les expériences linguistiques et interculturelles marquantes; elle contient des listes de repérage pour l'auto-évaluation.

Le Dossier est un recueil de différents types de travaux personnels qui illustrent clairement les performances atteintes dans les différentes langues.

Le Portfolio européen des langues veut

- favoriser la mobilité en Europe en renseignant sur les qualifications linguistiques d'une manière transparente et permettant de les comparer;
- encourager à étudier les langues étrangères;
- souligner la valeur du plurilinguisme et de la pluriculturalité et contribuer ainsi à améliorer la compréhension réciproque en Europe;
- favoriser l'apprentissage autonome et la capacité de s'auto-évaluer.

Le Portfolio européen des langues aide les apprenants/es à

- évaluer et décrire leurs propres connaissances linguistiques;
- classifier leurs propres connaissances linguistiques selon la description des niveaux de compétences émanant du Conseil de l'Europe;
- approfondir leurs propres expériences scolaires, extra-scolaires et interculturelles pendant l'apprentissage des langues et à les documenter;
- renseigner les personnes intéressées sur leurs connaissances linguistiques au moment de changer d'école, au début d'un cours de langue, d'un nouveau travail ou dans le cadre d'un programme d'échange;
- se fixer des objectifs pour leur apprentissage linguistique et à planifier les étapes successives.

Le Portfolio européen des langues aide les enseignants/es, les écoles et les institutions à

- identifier les nécessités et les motivations des apprenants/es, à fixer avec eux les objectifs et programmes d'apprentissage;
- s'informer sur les précédentes expériences linguistiques scolaires et extra-scolaires des apprenants/es;
- évaluer de manière différenciée et à documenter les performances;
- classifier les attestations d'examen final et les certificats d'après les niveaux de référence établis par le Conseil de l'Europe;
- illustrer leur enseignement linguistique ou les cours de langue et à délivrer des attestations sur les expériences faites pendant l'apprentissage des langues.

Le Portfolio européen des langues aide les entreprises, les services et les employeurs à

- se faire une image différenciée des connaissances linguistiques de leurs collaborateurs ou des candidats aux emplois proposés et à mieux utiliser les ressources linguistiques de leur personnel;
- planifier la qualification du personnel et à programmer les activités internes de perfectionnement et de recyclage;
- attester l'utilisation de langues étrangères au travail et la participation à des séjours de travail ou de perfectionnement.

Das Europäische Sprachenportfolio

Das Europäische Sprachenportfolio erfüllt zwei Aufgaben. Es ist zugleich Informationsinstrument und Lernbegleiter: Es soll einerseits anschaulich, transparent und international vergleichbar über Sprachkenntnisse und interkulturelle Erfahrungen informieren und andererseits für das Sprachenlernen motivieren und beim Sprachenlernen helfen. Es orientiert sich an dem vom Europarat entwickelten gemeinsamen europäischen Referenzsystem für das Sprachenlernen («Common European Framework of Reference» / «Cadre européen commun de référence»).

Das Europäische Sprachenportfolio besteht aus den drei Teilen Sprachenpass, Lernbiografie und Dossier.

Der Sprachenpass gibt einen Überblick über den aktuellen Stand der Sprachkenntnisse und die entsprechenden Zertifikate und Bestätigungen.

Die Lernbiografie dokumentiert die Geschichte des Sprachenlernens, gibt Auskunft über besuchten Sprachunterricht und über die eigenen Lernziele, informiert über wichtige sprachliche und interkulturelle Erfahrungen und enthält Checklisten zur Selbsteinschätzung.

Das Dossier sammelt persönliche Arbeiten unterschiedlicher Art, die anschaulich dokumentieren, welche Leistungen man in verschiedenen Sprachen erbracht hat.

Das Europäische Sprachenportfolio will

- die Mobilität in Europa erleichtern, indem es sprachliche Qualifikationen transparent und vergleichbar dokumentiert;
- zum Lernen von Fremdsprachen ermutigen;
- den Wert von Mehrsprachigkeit und Multikulturalität betonen und zum gegenseitigen Verständnis in Europa beitragen;
- autonomes Lernen und die Fähigkeit zur Selbstbeurteilung fördern.

Das Europäische Sprachenportfolio hilft den Lernenden

- ihre Sprachkenntnisse einzuschätzen und zu beschreiben;
- ihre Sprachkenntnisse den international vergleichbaren Niveaubeschreibungen des Europarats zuzuordnen;
- schulische und außerschulische Erfahrungen beim Sprachenlernen sowie interkulturelle Erfahrungen zu dokumentieren und zu reflektieren;
- Interessierte über ihre Sprachkenntnisse zu informieren, beispielsweise bei einem Schulwechsel, bei Beginn eines Sprachkurses, für ein Austauschprogramm oder bei einer Stellenbewerbung;
- sich Ziele für das Sprachenlernen zu setzen und das weitere Lernen zu planen.

Das Europäische Sprachenportfolio hilft Unterrichtenden, Schulen und anderen Bildungsinstituten

- die Bedürfnisse und Motivationen von Lernenden kennen zu lernen und mit ihnen Lernziele festzulegen und Lernprogramme zusammenzustellen;
- sich über frühere schulische und außerschulische Sprachlernerfahrungen der Lernenden zu informieren;
- Leistungen differenziert zu beurteilen und zu dokumentieren;
- Abschlüsse und Zertifikate den Referenzniveaus des Europarats zuzuordnen;
- ihren Sprachunterricht oder ihre Sprachkurse zu beschreiben und Bestätigungen über Sprachlernerfahrungen auszustellen.

Das Europäische Sprachenportfolio hilft Unternehmen, Dienststellen, Arbeitgeberinnen und Arbeitgebern

- sich ein differenziertes Bild über die Sprachkenntnisse von Mitarbeiterinnen und Mitarbeitern oder von Stellenbewerbern und -bewerberinnen zu verschaffen und deren sprachliche Ressourcen besser zu nutzen;
- die Qualifizierung von Mitarbeiterinnen und Mitarbeitern sowie die innerbetriebliche Aus- und Weiterbildung zu planen;
- Bestätigungen über die Verwendung von Fremdsprachen am Arbeitsplatz und über Arbeits- oder Weiterbildungsaufenthalte auszustellen.

Il Portfolio europeo delle lingue

Il Portfolio europeo delle lingue assolve due compiti. E' strumento di comunicazione e nel contempo accompagna chi ne è in possesso durante il processo di apprendimento della lingua. Da un lato deve informare in maniera completa, trasparente e intercomparabile a livello internazionale sulle conoscenze linguistiche e sulle esperienze interculturali e d'altro lato motivare all'apprendimento delle lingue assumendo una funzione di aiuto. Orienta infine sul sistema di referenza nel campo dell'apprendimento linguistico, elaborato dal Consiglio d'Europa («Common European Framework of Reference» / «Cadre européen commun de référence»).

Il Portfolio europeo delle lingue si compone di tre parti: il Passaporto linguistico, la Biografia di apprendimento e il Dossier.

Il Passaporto linguistico offre un quadro d'insieme dello stato attuale delle conoscenze linguistiche, dei rispettivi certificati o delle rispettive attestazioni.

La Biografia di apprendimento documenta la propria storia dell'apprendimento linguistico, informa sull'insegnamento linguistico seguito e sui propri obiettivi di apprendimento, su esperienze importanti negli ambiti linguistico e interculturale e contiene le liste di controllo per l'autovalutazione.

Il Dossier è una raccolta di lavori personali di diverso genere che documentano in maniera chiara le prestazioni fornite nelle diverse lingue.

Il Portfolio europeo delle lingue vuole

- favorire la mobilità in Europa, documentando in maniera trasparente e intercomparabile a livello internazionale le qualifiche nell'ambito linguistico;
- incoraggiare allo studio delle lingue straniere;
- sottolineare il valore del plurilinguismo e della pluriculturalità, contribuendo così a migliorare la comprensione reciproca in Europa;
- promuovere l'apprendimento autonomo e la capacità di autovalutazione.

Il portfolio europeo delle lingue aiuta chi apprende a

- valutare e a descrivere le proprie conoscenze linguistiche;
- classificare le proprie conoscenze linguistiche secondo la descrizione dei livelli di competenza, emanati dal Consiglio d'Europa, e intercomparabili a livello internazionale;
- riflettere sulle proprie esperienze scolastiche, extrascolastiche e interculturali nel campo dell'apprendimento linguistico e a documentarle;
- informare le persone interessate sulle proprie conoscenze linguistiche al momento di cambiare scuola o di assumere un nuovo impiego oppure all'inizio di un corso di lingue o nell'ambito di un programma di scambio;
- porsi obiettivi per il proprio apprendimento linguistico e a pianificare le tappe successive.

Il Portfolio europeo delle lingue aiuta chi insegna, le scuole e altre istituzioni a

- conoscere le necessità e le motivazioni di chi apprende, a fissare con questi gli obiettivi e i programmi di apprendimento;
- informarsi sulle precedenti esperienze linguistiche scolastiche e extrascolastiche di chi apprende;
- valutare in maniera differenziata e a documentare le prestazioni;
- classificare attestati di esami finali e certificati secondo il livello di referenza stabilito dal Consiglio d'Europa;
- illustrare il loro insegnamento linguistico o i corsi di lingue e a rilasciare attestazioni sulle esperienze fatte nell'ambito dell'apprendimento linguistico.

Il Portfolio europeo delle lingue aiuta aziende, servizi, datrici e datori di lavoro a

- farsi un quadro differenziato delle conoscenze linguistiche delle proprie collaboratrici e dei propri collaboratori o di chi postula un nuovo impiego, oltre a meglio sfruttare le risorse linguistiche del personale;
- programmare la qualificazione di collaboratrici e collaboratori e delle attività interne di aggiornamento e perfezionamento;
- attestare l'uso delle lingue straniere sul posto di lavoro e la partecipazione a soggiorni di lavoro o di perfezionamento, attraverso il rilascio di attestazioni.

The European Language Portfolio

The European Language Portfolio fulfils two functions: it is simultaneously an information tool and an accompaniment to language learning. It should provide information about language proficiency and inter-cultural experiences in a clear, easily comprehensible way, with internationally comparable descriptions. At the same time it should stimulate and help with language learning. It is based on the overall reference system for language learning developed by the Council of Europe ("Common European Framework of Reference" / "Cadre européen commun de référence").

The European Language Portfolio consists of three sections: the Language Passport, the Language Learning Biography and the Dossier.

The Language Passport shows at a glance the current level of language proficiency in different languages and the relevant certificates and attestations.

The Language Learning Biography summarises the owner's personal language learning history, gives information about language courses followed, personal learning objectives and significant linguistic and inter-cultural experiences, and contains checklists for self-assessment.

The Dossier is a collection of pieces of personal work of various kinds which clearly show what one has achieved in different languages.

The European Language Portfolio is intended to

- facilitate mobility in Europe by presenting language qualifications in a clear and internationally comparable way;
- encourage the learning of foreign languages;
- emphasise the value of multi-lingualism and multi-culturalism, and contribute to mutual understanding in Europe;
- promote autonomous learning and the ability to assess oneself.

The European Language Portfolio helps learners to

- evaluate and describe their language proficiency;
- situate their language proficiency on the internationally comparable scale of the Council of Europe;
- document and reflect on their language learning inside and outside school and on their inter-cultural experiences;
- inform anyone concerned about their proficiency in different languages, for example when changing schools, starting a language course, participating in an exchange programme, or applying for a job;
- set personal language objectives and plan further learning.

The European Language Portfolio helps teachers, schools and other training institutions to

- recognise the needs and motivation of learners and help them to set learning goals and put together programmes;
- obtain information about the learners' previous language learning experiences inside and outside school;
- evaluate and document performance on a differentiated scale;
- situate final certificates and qualifications on the scale of the Common European Framework of Reference;
- describe their language programmes and produce attestations of language learning experiences.

The Language Portfolio helps firms, offices and employers to

- obtain a differentiated picture of the language proficiency of their employees or job applicants and make better use of their language abilities;
- specify their employees' qualification requirements and plan in-house and external training programmes;
- prepare attestations on the use of foreign languages in the workplace and periods of professional development in other language areas.

Language Passport

The Language Passport gives an overview of your own language competence. It shows what level you have reached in different languages, for what levels you have obtained qualifications, and what language learning experiences you have had outside school.

The small booklet can be taken out and used when you change school, apply for a job, or start a language course. It shows anyone interested the level of your language competence in a clear and easily understandable way.

Your qualifications, certificates and attestations should remain in the Portfolio.

Self-assessment Grid
 Raster zur Selbstbeurteilung
 Grille pour l'auto-évaluation
 Scheda per l'autovalutazione

The Self-assessment Grid is a table with 6 columns representing language skills: Listening (a), Reading (b), Writing (c), Speaking (d), Grammar (e), and Vocabulary (f). The rows represent proficiency levels: A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, and C2. Each cell contains a list of specific language tasks and a small grid for self-assessment.

2

Self-assessment Checklists
 Checklisten zur Selbsteinschätzung
 Listes de repérage pour l'auto-évaluation
 Liste di controllo per l'autovalutazione

The Self-assessment Checklist for B1 level contains two sections: 'a) Hörverstehen' (Listening) and 'b) Leseverstehen' (Reading). Each section lists specific skills and provides a grid for marking 'Ja' (Yes) or 'Nein' (No) for each skill.

Language competence overview tables

 Tabelle di ricapitolazione del Passa-
 porto linguistico

The Language competence overview tables are two identical tables side-by-side. Each table has columns for levels A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, and C2. The rows represent different language skills: a) Hörverstehen, b) Leseverstehen, c) Schreiben, d) Sprechen, e) Grammatik, and f) Wortschatz. Each cell is a small grid for marking 'Ja' or 'Nein'.

How do you fill in the Language Passport?

1. Read the Self-Assessment Grid and make a rough estimate of your language levels.

2. Fill in the checklists for the relevant levels (Language Learning Biography, pages 2.3.1–6), in order to check and verify your estimate.

If your competence in some skills (listening, reading, speaking or writing) lies above or below this level, you can check them with the checklist of the next higher or lower level.

The divider for section 2 explains how to use the checklists.

3. Fill in a language competence overview table in the Language Passport for each language. They should be periodically updated.

4. Under "Other language learning experiences", put in the information from page II.1.5 (List of Attestations of Further Language Learning Experiences). You can obtain attestations for such contacts.

5. In the overview table of the Language Passport, indicate the levels of your language certificates and qualifications. Schools and institutions can calibrate their examinations and leaving certificates with the Council of Europe scale (page II.1.3.2).

Self-assessment Grid

	A1	A2	B1	B2	C1	C2
 Understanding Verstehen Comprendre	I can recognise familiar words and very basic phrases concerning myself, my family and immediate concrete surroundings when people speak slowly and clearly.	I can understand phrases and the highest frequency vocabulary related to areas of most immediate personal relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment). I can catch the main point in short, clear, simple messages and announcements.	I can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. I can understand the main point of many radio or TV programmes on current affairs or topics of personal or professional interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.	I can understand extended speech and lectures and follow even complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar. I can understand most TV news and current affairs programmes. I can understand the majority of films in standard dialect.	I can understand extended speech even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implied and not signalled explicitly. I can understand television programmes and films without too much effort.	I have no difficulty in understanding any kind of spoken language, whether live or broadcast, even when delivered at fast native speed, provided I have some time to get familiar with the accent.
 Speaking Sprechen Parlare	I can interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech and help me formulate what I'm trying to say. I can ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics.	I can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar topics and activities. I can handle very short social exchanges, even though I can't usually understand enough to keep the conversation going myself.	I can deal with most situations likely to arise while travelling in an area where the language is spoken. I can enter unprepared into conversation on topics that are familiar, of personal interest or pertinent to everyday life (e.g. family, hobbies, work, travel and current events).	I can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible. I can take an active part in discussion in familiar contexts, accounting for and sustaining my views.	I can express myself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. I can use language flexibly and effectively for social and professional purposes. I can formulate ideas and opinions with precision and relate my contribution skilfully to those of other speakers.	I can take part effortlessly in any conversation or discussion and have a good familiarity with idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms. I can express myself fluently and convey finer shades of meaning precisely. If I do have a problem I can backtrack and restructure around the difficulty so smoothly that other people are hardly aware of it.
 Writing Schreiben Scrivere	I can write a short, simple postcard, for example sending holiday greetings. I can fill in forms with personal details, for example entering my name, nationality and address on a hotel registration form.	I can write short, simple notes and messages relating to matters in areas of immediate need. I can write a very simple personal letter, for example thanking someone for something.	I can write simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. I can write personal letters describing experiences and impressions.	I can write clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects related to my interests. I can write an essay or report, passing on information or giving reasons in support of or against a particular point of view. I can write letters highlighting the personal significance of events and experiences.	I can present clear, detailed descriptions of complex subjects integrating sub-themes, developing particular points and rounding off with an appropriate conclusion.	I can present a clear, smoothly-flowing description or argument in a style appropriate to the context and with an effective logical structure which helps the listener to notice and remember significant points.

5. List your attestations of significant language learning experiences.

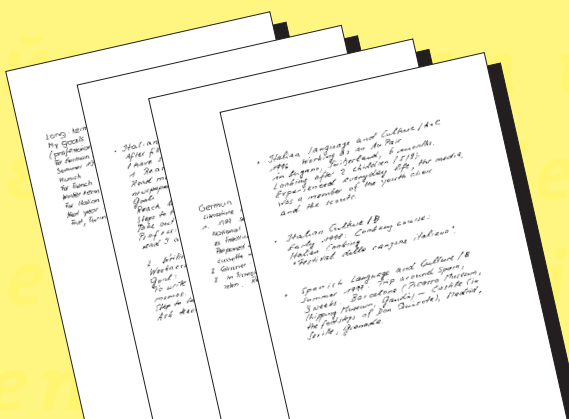

6. Get attestations of language learning activities from schools, institutions or private individuals.

For example:

- Attestation of a school visit abroad
- Attestation of a stay in a foreign language area
- Attestation of hosting a guest from a partner school or institution
- Attestation of a work practice period abroad
- Attestation of participation in a regular exchange of letters
- Attestation of participation in a project
- Attestation of participation in bi-lingual or immersion courses
- Attestation of participation in an exchange programme

You can also put attestations of other language learning experiences in the Portfolio.

Language Learning Biography

The Language Learning Biography contains the history of your language learning, self-assessment checklists, details of your significant linguistic and intercultural experiences, and information about schools and courses you have attended and your learning objectives.

The working tools in the Language Learning Biography section help keep in mind and document scholastic and extra-scholastic language learning experiences, intercultural experiences, needs and objectives. They are an aid in planning further language learning.

Fill in the self-assessment checklists

3. There are checklists for the six levels (A1–C2) of the Council of Europe. The checklists can be used to assess yourself (column 1), and for assessment of your competence by someone else, for example a teacher (column 2).

Procedure:

Read the Self-Assessment Grid (page I.1.1) and make a rough estimate of your language levels.

Fill in the checklists for the relevant levels. If your competence in some skills (listening, reading, speaking or writing) lies above or below this level, you can check them with the checklist of the next higher or lower level. You can find further checklists among the sample pages.

If you are not yet able to do certain things mentioned in the checklist, you can indicate in column 3 how important they are for your own language learning.

The checklists can be completed – perhaps with your teacher's help – with other things you can already do or want to be able to do.

You can find the checklists on the Internet (<http://www.unifr.ch/ids/portfolio>). They can be completed with your own learning objectives or school programmes. You can also call up tests for the various levels and information about relevant language certificates.

Language: _____

Use this checklist to record what you think you can do (Column 1). Ask someone else, for example your teacher, to also assess what they think you can do (Column 2). Use Column 3 to mark those things that you cannot yet do which you feel are important for you (Column 3 = Objectives).
Add to the list – perhaps with your teacher – other things that you can do, or that are important for your language learning at this level.

Use the following symbols:

In columns 1 and 2

✓ I can do this under normal circumstances

✓✓ I can do this easily

In column 3

! This is an objective for me

!! This is a priority for me

If you have over 80% of the points ticked, you have probably reached Level A1.

Listening

I can understand when someone speaks very slowly to me and articulates carefully, with long pauses for me to assimilate meaning.

I can understand simple directions how to get from X to Y, by foot or public transport.

I can understand questions and instructions addressed carefully and slowly to me and follow short, simple directions.

I can understand numbers, prices and times.

Me	My teacher / another	My objectives
----	----------------------	---------------

Spoken Interaction

I can introduce somebody and use basic greeting and leave-taking expressions.

I can make myself understood in a simple way but I am dependent on my partner being prepared to repeat more slowly and rephrase what I say and to help me to say what I want.

I can make simple purchases where pointing or other gestures can support the verbal reference.

I can handle numbers, quantities, cost and time.

I can ask people for things and give people things.

I can ask people questions about where they live, people they know, things they have, etc. and answer such questions addressed to me provided they are articulated slowly and clearly.

I can indicate time by such phrases as "next week", "last Friday", "in November", "three o'clock".

I can ask and answer simple questions, initiate and respond to simple statements in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics.

Spoken Production

I can describe where I live.

Reading

- I can understand the essential items on a menu.
- I can understand information about people (place of residence, age, etc.) in newspapers.
- I can locate a concert or a film on calendars of public events or posters and identify where it takes place and at what time it starts.
- I can identify some pieces of information (for example the price of goods) in a leaflet, a brochure or an advertisement.
- I can understand a questionnaire (entry permit form, hotel registration form) well enough to give the most important information about myself (name, surname, date of birth, nationality).
- I can understand words and phrases on signs encountered in everyday life (for instance "station", "car park", "no parking", "no smoking").
- I can understand some indications on sign boards in shopping-centres such as "cosmetics", "foods", "sports", "computers".
- I can understand the most important orders in a computer programme such as "PRINT", "SAVE", "COPY", etc.
- I can understand simple directions such as "keep left", "no right turn".
- I can understand short simple messages on postcards, for example holiday greetings.
- In everyday situations I can understand simple messages written by friends or colleagues, for example "back at 4 o'clock".

Writing

- I can fill in a questionnaire with my personal details (job, age, address, hobbies).
- I can write a greeting card, for instance a birthday card.
- I can write a simple postcard (for example with holiday greetings).
- I can write a note to tell somebody where I am or where we are to meet.
- I can write sentences and simple phrases about myself, for example where I live and what I do.

Spoken Interaction

I can make simple transactions in shops, post offices or banks.

I can use public transport: buses, trains, and taxis, ask for basic information and buy tickets.

I can get simple information about travel.

I can order something to eat or drink.

I can make simple purchases by stating what I want and asking the price.

I can ask for and give directions referring to a map or plan.

I can ask how people are and react to news.

I can make and respond to invitations.

I can make and accept apologies.

I can say what I like and dislike.

I can discuss with other people what to do, where to go and make arrangements to meet.

I can ask people questions about what they do at work and in free time, and answer such questions addressed to me.

I can ask and answer questions in conversation, and respond to simple statements.

	Me	My teacher / another	My objectives
Listening
I can follow clearly articulated speech directed at me in everyday conversation, though I sometimes have to ask for repetition of particular words and phrases.
I can generally follow the main points of extended discussion around me, provided speech is clearly articulated in standard dialect.
I can listen to a short narrative and form hypotheses about what will happen next.

Spoken Interaction
I can start, maintain and close simple face-to-face conversation on topics that are familiar or of personal interest.
I can maintain a conversation or discussion but may sometimes be difficult to follow when trying to say exactly what I would like to.
I can deal with most situations likely to arise when making travel arrangements through an agent or when actually travelling.
I can cope with less routine situations on public transport e.g. asking a passenger where to get off for an unfamiliar destination.
I can ask for and follow detailed directions.
I can sometimes take the initiative in a conversation (e.g. to bring up a new subject) but I am very dependent on my partner in the interaction.
I can express and respond to feelings such as surprise, happiness, sadness, interest and indifference.
I can enter unprepared into conversations on familiar topics.
I can agree and disagree politely.
I can give or seek personal views and opinions in an informal discussion with friends.
I can make my opinions and reactions understood as regards solutions to problems or practical questions of where to go, what to do.

I can understand the main points in short newspaper articles about current and familiar topics.
I can read and sufficiently understand factual texts written in a simple language and for a wide public and which deal with topics within my field of interest or my area of academic or professional speciality.
I can read columns or interviews in newspapers and magazines in which someone takes a stand on a current topic or event and understand the overall meaning of the text.
I can guess the meaning of single unknown words from the context thus deducing the meaning of expressions if the topic is familiar.
I can skim short texts (for example short messages) and find relevant facts and information (for example who has done what and where).
I can extract relevant information from short official texts meant for the public (for example school rules or municipal regulations).
I can understand the most important information in short simple everyday information brochures.
I can understand simple messages and standard letters (for example from businesses, clubs or authorities).
In private letters I can understand those parts dealing with events, feelings and wishes well enough to correspond regularly with a pen friend.
I can recognise the most important standard letters (for example in a computer correspondence programme) and understand them well enough to adapt them to my needs.
I can understand literary texts with a basic vocabulary and a simple straightforward plot.
I can understand the plot of a clearly structured story and recognise what the most important episodes and events are and what is significant about them.

 Writing
I can write on topics which are familiar to me or which interest me personally in a simple and clearly structured way.
I can write straightforward connected texts on a range of topics within my field of interest and can express personal views and opinions.
I can write short simple texts about experiences or events, for example about a trip, for a school newspaper or a club newsletter.
I can write personal letters to friends or acquaintances asking for or giving them news and narrating events.
I can describe in a personal letter the plot of a film or a book or give an account of a concert.
In a letter I can express feelings such as grief, happiness, interest, regret and sympathy.
I can reply in written form to advertisements and ask for more complete or more specific information about products (for example a car or an academic course).
I can convey – via fax, e-mail or a circular – short simple factual information to friends or colleagues or ask for information in such a way.
I can write my CV in summary form.
I have a sufficiently large range of vocabulary to write on most topics concerned with my everyday life (family, interests) in a relatively fluent and easily comprehensible way.
I can write texts on topics which are familiar to me, highlighting the points which I consider important.

Use the following symbols:

Spoken Production	1	2	3
I can give clear, detailed descriptions on a wide range of subjects related to my fields of interest.
I can understand and summarise orally short extracts from news items, interviews or documentaries containing opinions, argument and discussion.
I can understand and summarise orally the plot and sequence of events in an extract from a film or play.
I can construct a chain of reasoned argument, linking my ideas logically.
I can explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
I can speculate about causes, consequences, hypothetical situations.
Strategies	1	2	3
I can use standard phrases like "That's a difficult question to answer" to gain time and keep the turn while formulating what to say.
I can make a note of "favourite mistakes" and consciously monitor speech for them.
I can generally correct slips and errors if I become conscious of them or if they have led to misunderstandings.
Language Quality	1	2	3
I can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without imposing strain on either party.
I can pass on detailed information reliably.
I can produce stretches of language with a fairly even tempo; although I can be hesitant as I search for patterns and expressions, there are few noticeably long pauses.
I can communicate with reasonable accuracy and can correct mistakes if they have led to misunderstandings.

Reading

	Me	My teacher / another	My objectives
I can read independently and make selective use of the relevant reference works.
I can read a variety of factual and literary texts and summarise the content orally, commenting on the main topics and the different points of view.
I can read and understand articles and reports on current problems in which the writers express specific attitudes and points of view.
I can read longer articles on current topics, distinguishing between facts, opinions and conclusions.
I can understand in detail texts within my field of interest or the area of my academic or professional speciality.
I can understand specialised articles outside my own field if I can occasionally check with a dictionary.
I can read reviews dealing with the content and criticism of cultural topics (films, theatre, books, concerts) and summarise the main points.
I can read letters on topics within my areas of academic or professional speciality or interest and grasp the most important points.
I can quickly look through a manual (for example for a computer program) and find and understand the relevant explanations and help for a specific problem.
I can rapidly grasp the content and the significance of news, articles and reports on topics connected with my interests or my job, and decide if a closer reading is worthwhile.
I can scan factual texts written for a wide public (for example the history of aviation), select the relevant parts and, given the use of a dictionary, read them in detail.
I can read novels, plays and short stories, following the flow of thoughts and actions and thus understanding the overall meaning and many details.
I can understand in a narrative or play the motives for the characters' actions and their consequences for the development of the plot.

 Writing
I can write clear and detailed texts (compositions, reports or texts of presentations) on various topics related to my field of interest.
I can write summaries of articles on topics of general interest.
I can summarise information from different sources and media.
I can discuss or debate a topic in a composition, giving reasons for or against a specific point of view and explaining the advantages and disadvantages of different alternatives.
I can systematically discuss a topic in a composition or report, emphasising decisive points and including supporting details.
I can express a viewpoint in a working paper or a dossier and can briefly list positive and negative points.
I can write fairly long and easily comprehensible stories.
I can write about events and real or fictional experiences in a detailed and easily comprehensible way.
I can write a short review of a film or a book.
I can express in a personal letter different feelings and attitudes and can report the news of the day making clear what – in my opinion – are the important aspects of an event.
I can write a letter to the editor making a statement in favour of or against a point of view.
I can write on topics within my field of interest in an easily comprehensible and generally correct way.
I have a relatively large vocabulary which enables me to write on everyday topics and topics within my field of interest in a detailed way.

a Self-assessment Checklist

Language: _____

Use this checklist to record what you think you can do (Column 1). Ask someone else, for example your teacher, to also assess what they think you can do (Column 2). Use Column 3 to mark those things that you cannot yet do which you feel are important for you (Column 3 = Objectives). Add to the list – perhaps with your teacher – other things that you can do, or that are important for your language learning at this level.

Use the following symbols:

In columns 1 and 2

✓ I can do this under normal circumstances

✓✓ I can do this easily

In column 3

! This is an objective for me

!! This is a priority for me

If you have over 80% of the points ticked, you have probably reached Level C1.

Listening

	Me	My teacher / another	My objectives
I can follow extended speech even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implied and not signalled explicitly.
I can understand a wide range of idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms, appreciating shifts in style and register.
I can extract specific information from even poor quality, audibly distorted public announcements, e.g. in a station, sports stadium etc.
I can understand complex technical information, such as operating instructions, specifications for familiar products and services.
I can understand lectures, talks and reports in my field of professional or academic interest even when they are propositionally and linguistically complex.
I can without too much effort understand films employing a considerable degree of slang and idiomatic usage.

Spoken Interaction

I can keep up with an animated conversation between native speakers.
I can use the language fluently, accurately and effectively on a wide range of general, professional or academic topics.
I can use language flexibly and effectively for social purposes, including emotional, allusive and joking usage.
I can express my ideas and opinions clearly and precisely, and can present and respond to complex lines of reasoning convincingly.

Use the following symbols:

Me	My teacher / another	My objectives
----	----------------------	---------------

Spoken Production

I can give clear, detailed descriptions of complex subjects.

I can orally summarise long, demanding texts.

I can present orally a comprehensive description or report, integrating themes, developing particular points and rounding off with an appropriate conclusion.

I can give a clearly developed presentation on a subject in my fields of personal or professional interest, departing when necessary from the prepared text and following up spontaneously points raised by members of the audience.

Strategies

I can use fluently a variety of appropriate expressions to preface my remarks in order to get the floor, or to gain time and keep the floor while thinking.

I can relate own contribution skilfully to those of other speakers.

I can substitute an equivalent term for a word I can't recall without distracting the listener.

Language Quality

I can express myself fluently and spontaneously, almost effortlessly. Only a conceptually difficult subject can hinder a natural, smooth flow of language.

I can produce clear, smoothly-flowing, well-structured speech, showing control over ways of developing what I want to say in order to link both my ideas and my expression of them into coherent text.

I have a good command of a broad vocabulary allowing gaps to be readily overcome with circumlocutions; I rarely have to search obviously for expressions or compromise on saying exactly what I want to.

I can consistently maintain a high degree of grammatical accuracy; errors are rare and difficult to spot.

I can reformulate ideas in differing linguistic forms in a very flexible manner in order to give emphasis, to differentiate and to eliminate ambiguity.

I can convey finer shades of meaning precisely by using, with reasonable accuracy, a wide range of expressions to qualify statements and pinpoint the extent to which something is the case.

I have a good command of idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms with an awareness of implied meaning and meaning by association.

Reading

I can recognise plays on words and appreciate texts whose real meaning is not explicit (for example irony, satire).

I can understand texts written in a very colloquial style and containing many idiomatic expressions or slang.

I can grasp fine stylistic differences and implicit meanings in articles and books.

I can understand manuals, regulations and contracts even within unfamiliar fields.

I can understand contemporary and classical literary texts of different genres (poetry, prose, drama).

I can read texts such as literary columns or satirical glosses where much is said in an indirect and ambiguous way and which contain hidden value judgements.

I can recognise different stylistic means (puns, metaphors, symbols, connotations, ambiguity) and appreciate and evaluate their function within the text.

I can read avant-garde texts where the connections are sometimes hidden and the themes are not always clearly defined.

Writing

I can write well structured and easily comprehensible reports and articles on complex topics.

In a report or an essay I can give a complete account of a topic based on research I have carried out, make a summary of the opinions of others, and give and evaluate detailed information and facts.

I can write a well structured review of a paper or a project giving reasons for my opinion.

I can write a critical review of cultural events (film, music, theatre, literature, radio, TV).

I can write summaries of factual texts and literary works.

I can write narratives about experiences in a clear, fluent style appropriate to the genre.

I can write clear, well structured complex letters in an appropriate style, for example an application or request, an offer to authorities, superiors or commercial clients.

In a letter I can express myself in a consciously ironical, ambiguous and humorous way.

I can express slight nuances of meaning and consciously exploit ambiguity and the connotation of particular expressions.

I can reformulate ideas in a flexible way in order to hold the reader's attention, by using a variety of linguistic techniques to highlight or express something in a different way.

Information about Important Linguistic and Intercultural Experiences

Examples for page 2.4.2

This is the place for you to give (more in detail than on the “My Personal Language Learning Biography” page) information about important intercultural experiences and activities which have contributed to widening your knowledge of other countries and the people, society and culture of foreign language areas. The information can be organised as you wish: separated according to language, or chronologically.

- A Intercultural experiences (encounters with the country, culture and speakers of the language)
- B Other activities which have contributed to a greater knowledge of the society and culture (art, music, literature, history, media, etc)
- C Practical use of the language in specific situations (work, study, school, free time, with friends and acquaintances)
- D Important pieces of work and projects in a foreign language

Examples from various learners

German, French / C

Micro-technology studies in Lausanne, Switzerland. Regular reading of specialised literature in German and French.

French / D

Autumn 1997: Participated in a story-telling workshop. (See attestation)

We wrote stories, told them and acted them out. (See videocassette in the Dossier)

Italian Language and Culture / A+C

1996: Worked as an Au Pair in Lugano, Switzerland, 6 months. Looking after 2 children (5 / 9). Experienced everyday life, the media, was a member of the youth choir and the scouts.

German Literature / B+D

Literature read:

1. 1997: several young people's books about National Socialism (Der Attentäter / Damals war es Friedrich / Der Mann von der anderen Seite). Prepared documentation (with others). Recorded a cassette with impressions of the works (See Dossier).
2. Glauser: Gourrama. Frisch: Andorra.
3. In Translation: Die Blechtrommel, Billard um halb zehn, Reportagen aus der Schweiz.

Spanish Language and Culture / B

Summer 1997: Trip around Spain, 3 weeks. Barcelona (Picasso Museum, Shipping Museum, Gaudi) – Castille (in the footsteps of Don Quixote), Madrid, Seville, Granada.

German, French, English / C

Summer 1997: Worked in a hotel, 6 weeks. Regularly spoke German, French and English (in addition to my native language, Italian).

Italian History / B

History course at the lycée (native language). Seminar “Italy under Fascism”. Seminar paper on “Neo-fascist Groups in Italy”

Italian Culture / B

Early 1998: Cookery course: Italian Cooking. “Festival della canzone italiana.”

Description of stays in foreign language areas

The information should deal above all with specific intercultural experiences during an exchange or a stay in a foreign language area. Here are some suggestions as to how you can describe and comment on observations, events and experiences which you have found interesting, unfamiliar, strange or worthy of notice.

1. Describe your expectations before the stay:

What do I expect from the stay (from the host family, from my studies, from my work, from other people)?

How will I make contacts and take advantage of the stay to find out as much as possible about the area and its people?

2. Note down your first impressions:

After a week or two (depending on the length of your stay) take time to describe and evaluate one or more important observations, an instructive experience or event.

Why is the observation significant? What is special about it?

3. Keep a record of development:

At regular intervals (for example every 5–6 weeks) look over your earlier notes (for example “first impressions” and “expectations before the stay”, and express how you now judge your earlier observations and comments.

What do I now see or assess differently?

4. For your notes and descriptions use pages which you can then keep as documents in your Learning Biography.

Is it more important for me to understand, to read literature or to write? Do I want to attend a course, learn in a tandem partnership, or have a stay in a foreign language area?

Examples from various learners

German Objectives for the new school term

Speaking: During the lunch breaks speak only German to Hans (Wednesday, Friday).

Reading: Read 2 books outside the programme.

Do what I enjoy doing more often (= regularly), watch Derrick on TV.

Italian After filling in the self-assessment checklist (B1) I have set myself the following aims:

Reading:
Read more texts in my field of interest and newspaper articles about current problems.

Goal:

Reach level B2 in reading skills.

Steps to take:

Take out a subscription to an Italian magazine.

Professional publications at work: read 3 articles per week.

Writing:

Weaknesses discovered at level B1.

Goal:

To write acceptable personal letters and memos.

Step to take:

Ask teacher in professional school for advice.

Long-term goals

My goals over the next few years at work (professional language)

For German:

Summer 1999: Work experience with BMW in Munich.

For French:

Winter term 1999: Sorbonne, Paris.

For Italian:

Next year: 3-month work experience with Fiat, Turin.

French Brushing up my skills in French

Why:

To be able to participate in multi-lingual meetings and follow the contributions in French.

What:

Improve my listening comprehension.

Steps to take:

Find out about suitable listening material for independent study.

While driving listen only to the French-Swiss programme.

Watch the news only on the French-Swiss TV and a feature film twice a week.

	A1	A2	B1	B2	C1	C2
 Understanding Verstehen Comprendre	I can recognise familiar words and very basic phrases concerning myself, my family and immediate concrete surroundings when people speak slowly and clearly.	I can understand phrases and the highest frequency vocabulary related to areas of most immediate personal relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment). I can catch the main point in short, clear, simple messages and announcements.	I can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. I can understand the main point of many radio or TV programmes on current affairs or topics of personal or professional interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.	I can understand extended speech and lectures and follow even complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar. I can understand most TV news and current affairs programmes. I can understand the majority of films in standard dialect.	I can understand extended speech even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implied and not signalled explicitly. I can understand television programmes and films without too much effort.	I have no difficulty in understanding any kind of spoken language, whether live or broadcast, even when delivered at fast native speed, provided I have some time to get familiar with the accent.
 Speaking Sprechen Parlare	I can interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech and help me formulate what I'm trying to say. I can ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics.	I can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar topics and activities. I can handle very short social exchanges, even though I can't usually understand enough to keep the conversation going myself.	I can deal with most situations likely to arise while travelling in an area where the language is spoken. I can enter unprepared into conversation on topics that are familiar, of personal interest or pertinent to everyday life (e.g. family, hobbies, work, travel and current events).	I can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible. I can take an active part in discussion in familiar contexts, accounting for and sustaining my views.	I can express myself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. I can use language flexibly and effectively for social and professional purposes. I can formulate ideas and opinions with precision and relate my contribution skilfully to those of other speakers.	I can take part effortlessly in any conversation or discussion and have a good familiarity with idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms. I can express myself fluently and convey finer shades of meaning precisely. If I do have a problem I can backtrack and restructure around the difficulty so smoothly that other people are hardly aware of it.
 Writing Schreiben Scrivere	I can write a short, simple postcard, for example sending holiday greetings. I can fill in forms with personal details, for example entering my name, nationality and address on a hotel registration form.	I can write short, simple notes and messages relating to matters in areas of immediate need. I can write a very simple personal letter, for example thanking someone for something.	I can write simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. I can write personal letters describing experiences and impressions.	I can write clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects related to my interests. I can write an essay or report, passing on information or giving reasons in support of or against a particular point of view. I can write letters highlighting the personal significance of events and experiences.	I can present clear, detailed descriptions of complex subjects integrating sub-themes, developing particular points and rounding off with an appropriate conclusion.	I can present a clear, smoothly-flowing description or argument in a style appropriate to the context and with an effective logical structure which helps the listener to notice and remember significant points.

Self-assessment Checklist

Level A1

Language: _____

Use this checklist to record what you think you can do (Column 1). Ask someone else, for example your teacher, to also assess what they think you can do (Column 2). Use Column 3 to mark those things that you cannot yet do which you feel are important for you (Column 3 = Objectives).
Add to the list – perhaps with your teacher – other things that you can do, or that are important for your language learning at this level.

Use the following symbols:

In columns 1 and 2

✓ I can do this under normal circumstances

✓✓ I can do this easily

In column 3

! This is an objective for me

!! This is a priority for me

I can write summaries of articles on topics of general interest.

I can summarise information from different sources and media.

I can discuss or debate a topic in a composition, giving reasons for or against a specific point of view and explaining the advantages and disadvantages of different alternatives.

I can systematically discuss a topic in a composition or report, emphasising decisive points and including supporting details.

I can express a viewpoint in a working paper or a dossier and can briefly list positive and negative points.

I can write fairly long and easily comprehensible stories.

I can write about events and real or fictional experiences in a detailed and easily comprehensible way.

I can write a short review of a film or a book.

I can express in a personal letter different feelings and attitudes and can report the news of the day making clear what – in my opinion – are the important aspects of an event.

I can write a letter to the editor making a statement in favour of or against a point of view.

I can write on topics within my field of interest in an easily comprehensible and generally correct way.

I have a relatively large vocabulary which enables me to write on everyday topics and topics within my field of interest in a detailed way.

I can give a clearly developed presentation on a subject in my fields of personal or professional interest, departing when necessary from the prepared text and following up spontaneously points raised by members of the audience.

Strategies

I can use fluently a variety of appropriate expressions to preface my remarks in order to get the floor, or to gain time and keep the floor while thinking.

I can relate own contribution skilfully to those of other speakers.

I can substitute an equivalent term for a word I can't recall without distracting the listener.

Language Quality

I can express myself fluently and spontaneously, almost effortlessly. Only a conceptually difficult subject can hinder a natural, smooth flow of language.

I can produce clear, smoothly-flowing, well-structured speech, showing control over ways of developing what I want to say in order to link both my ideas and my expression of them into coherent text.

I have a good command of a broad vocabulary allowing gaps to be readily overcome with circumlocutions; I rarely have to search obviously for expressions or compromise on saying exactly what I want to.

I can consistently maintain a high degree of grammatical accuracy; errors are rare and difficult to spot.

a Self-assessment Checklist

Language: _____

Use this checklist to record what you think you can do (Column 1). Ask someone else, for example your teacher, to also assess what they think you can do (Column 2). Use Column 3 to mark those things that you cannot yet do which you feel are important for you (Column 3 = Objectives).
Add to the list – perhaps with your teacher – other things that you can do, or that are important for your language learning at this level.

Use the following symbols:

In columns 1 and 2

✓ I can do this under normal circumstances

✓✓ I can do this easily

In column 3

! This is an objective for me

!! This is a priority for me

If you have over 80% of the points ticked, you have probably reached Level C2.

		Me	My teacher / another	My objectives
	Listening	1	2	3
	I have no difficulty in understanding any kind of spoken language, whether live or broadcast, even when delivered at fast native speed, provided I have some time to get familiar with the accent.
	Spoken Interaction	1	2	3
	I can take part effortlessly in all conversations and discussions with native speakers.
	Spoken Production	1	2	3
	I can understand and summarise orally information from different sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation of the overall result.
	Strategies	1	2	3
	I can backtrack and restructure around a difficulty so smoothly the interlocutor is hardly aware of it.

Writing

I can write well structured and easily comprehensible reports and articles on complex topics.

In a report or an essay I can give a complete account of a topic based on research I have carried out, make a summary of the opinions of others, and give and evaluate detailed information and facts.

I can write a well structured review of a paper or a project giving reasons for my opinion.

I can write a critical review of cultural events (film, music, theatre, literature, radio, TV).

I can write summaries of factual texts and literary works.

I can write narratives about experiences in a clear, fluent style appropriate to the genre.

I can write clear, well structured complex letters in an appropriate style, for example an application or request, an offer to authorities, superiors or commercial clients.

In a letter I can express myself in a consciously ironical, ambiguous and humorous way.

I can express slight nuances of meaning and consciously exploit ambiguity and the connotation of particular expressions.

I can reformulate ideas in a flexible way in order to hold the reader's attention, by using a variety of linguistic techniques to highlight or express something in a different way.
