Coordinator for specialized Master program in Experimental Biomedical Research
Lecturer (50%), initial contract for a period of 3 years at the Department of Medicine, University of Fribourg

Profile
We are looking for candidates with experience in academic administration and teaching

Areas of activity
You
- will coordinate teaching of the program http://studies.unifr.ch/de/master/medspo/biomedicalresearch/ and contribute to its dynamic development,
- contribute to teaching program yourself in one of the thematic focus areas of the master program,
- conduct your own research projects, ideally in cooperation with established research group of the University of Fribourg,
- act as study advisor and career counselor for students in the program,
- lead efforts in advertising to increase national and international visibility of the program.

Requirements
- You have Doctorate in a relevant subject area and have a track record in scientific research.
- You have experience in University teaching in an area relevant to the MSc Experimental biomedical research-
- You are highly motivated and enjoy working together in with a team.

Languages
Excellent knowledge of the English language is required. Competence in German and/or French language is also desirable.

Position start:
01.09.2017
For information please contact:
Prof. Gregor Rainer
T: +41 26 300 8689
gregor.rainer@unifr.ch
W: www.unifr.ch/science/positions
Application deadline:
15.11.2016
Adress for applications:
Per Mail:
z.Hd. Christelle Schneuwly
Departement für Medizin
Universität Freiburg
Chemin du Musée 8
1700 Freiburg

or email to: christelle.schneuwly@unifr.ch