

PUBLISHED PEER-REVIEWED WORK

Mateoc, Raluca 2023 “Hidden Christians Made Visible: An Ethnography of Tourism in a World Heritage Property of Japan”. In: Edward Boyle & Steven Ivings (Eds.), Heritage, Contested Sites, and Bordered Memories, Brill: Boston and Leiden, 107-135

Mateoc, Raluca; François Rüegg 2020 (Eds.). Recalling Fieldwork. People, Places and Encounters. Lit Verlag: Wien. Reviewed in - Anthropology. Journal for Socio-Cultural Anthropology, Journal of Romanian Studies, Ethnologia Balkanica

Mateoc, Raluca 2020. “Conclusion. Spheres of Intimacy within the Field”. In: Raluca, Mateoc; François Rüegg (Eds.), Recalling Fieldwork. People, Places, and Encounters. Lit Verlag: Wien. 235- 247

Mateoc, Raluca 2019. “World and Local Heritage along the Nomination Process of “Hidden Christian Sites in the Nagasaki Region”. Proceedings of the 6th International Conference Japan: Pre-Modern, Modern and Contemporary. A Return Trip from the East to the West. Learning in, about and from Japan. The Annals of The Faculty of Foreign Languages and Literatures of “Dimitrie Cantemir” Christian University 18: 125-146

Mateoc, Raluca 2019. “The Aliyah of 1949: Unpublished Migration Requests of Jews from Romania as Vehicles of Memory”. Martor. The Museum of the Romanian Peasant Anthropology Review 24: 97-108

Mateoc, Raluca 2018, “The Deportations of 1949 in Western Romanian Countryside: Identifications and Recollections at the Edge of Time”. Ethnologia Balkanica 21: 309-326

Mateoc, Raluca 2017. “Conversions, Work and Family Relations: Self-identifications within some Romanian Rural Roma Groups”. Ethnologia Balkanica 19: 185-203

Mateoc, Raluca, 2017: The Collective Cooperative of Socialist Romanian Countryside (1949-1989): Institutional Culture, Gender, Leadership. Irish Slavonic Studies 26: 95-110

Mateoc, Raluca 2017. “The Roma Groups in Three Multi-ethnic Villages of (Post) Socialist Western Romania: Housing, Work and Institutions”. Romanian Yearbook of Anthropology 54: 73-89

Mateoc, Raluca 2014. “This Village is Going to Become a Gypsy Village”: Micro-ethnography of Fear Constructions in Two Romanian Post-Socialist Villages. In: Boscoboinik, Andrea; Hana Horakova (Eds.), The anthropology of fear: cultures beyond emotions. Lit Verlag: Zürich, 85-10

SELECTED CONFERENCES AND GUEST LECTURES

August 2023

17th international EAJS (European Association for Japanese Studies) conference, Ghent
Discussant for the panel Historical narratives in public: Representing marginalized, contested, and fading voices of the past

May 2023

Hidden/(un)told heritage narratives and the politics of storytelling
Workshop, Istituto Svizzero Roma

Paper: Transforming heritage experiences: virtual tourism in the Hidden Christian Sites (Japan) during the Covid-19 pandemic

November 2021

Psychology and Society Group Meeting, Webster University Geneva

Guest Lecture: Nature, Churches and "Prayer Islands": on Touristic Encounters in Nagasaki

November 2020

Research colloquium (Forschungskolloquium), Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München, Department of Asian Studies, the Japan Center

Guest Lecture: Everyday actions and feelings around a World Heritage nomination in Nagasaki

July 2020

Kyushu University Border Studies, "Heritage, conflicted sites and bordered memories in Asia" workshop

Paper: World Heritage and Intimacies: Insights from "Hidden Christian Sites in the Nagasaki Region"

December 2019

Université de Genève, Département des Langues et Littératures Romanes, Unité de Roumain

Guest lecture: La collectivisation de l'agriculture dans la République Populaire Roumaine (1949-1962) : relations sociales, subjectivités et imaginations politiques

September 2018

6th Japanese Studies Conference, "Japan: Pre-modern, Modern, and Contemporary. A return trip from the East to the West. Learning in, about and from Japan", "Dimitrie Cantemir" Christian University, Bucharest

Paper: Heritage as Lived, Embodied, and Imagined: the Pre-inscription Life of a World Heritage Property in Nagasaki

April-May 2015

20th Convention of the ASN (Association for the Study of Nationalities), Columbia University, New York

Paper: Religion, Work and Family Relations: Self-identifications within Some Romanian Rural Roma Groups

September 2014

7th InASEA (International Association for Southeast European Anthropology) Congress, Istanbul "Cultures of Crisis: Experiencing and Coping with Upheavals and Disasters in Southeast Europe"

Paper: The Shifting Family Identities within Two Romanian Rural Roma Groups

June 2015

University of Zurich, Workshop "Family Narratives/ Nation(alistic) Narratives"

Paper: Constructing the Notion of Family in Narratives on Life in the Romanian Socialist Village

EVENTS

2022

Workshop Doing fieldwork in socialist Eastern Europe: methodology, ethics, and engagement

Religious Studies, University of Fribourg (with Ansgar Jödicke)

2022

One-off lectures on Japanese Cultural Heritage (within BA seminar)

Pratiques religieuses parmi les Nikkei en Bolivie, Yvonne Siemann, University of Lucerne

Killing the Gods of the Sea: Japanese Religious and Environmental Attitudes towards Whales and Dolphins, Fynn Holm, Harvard University
MEG student visit and in-house discussion on Japan-related permanent collections and temporary exhibition on Aïnou (Ainu) culture

OTHER

2023

Eastern European Screenings organizer

Interfaculty Institute of Central and Eastern Europe, University of Fribourg

Since 2022

Host of JICC's (Japan Information and Cultural Center) Japanese Film Screenings tour

University of Fribourg, eikon (Vocational school of applied arts)

October 2019

Automne de la culture japonaise, Geneva

Swiss-Japanese Society, Suisse Romande section

Presentation : Sites chrétiens cachés de la région de Nagasaki : réflexions à partir de l'inscription sur la Liste du patrimoine mondial de l'UNESCO

November 2015

Asia-Europe Education Forum, Bucharest

The European Federation of UNESCO Clubs and Associations

Presentation: Small ethnic communities and heritage attempts since the 1990s: Turks and Tatars of Dobrogea, Romania

November-December 2015

University of Fribourg, eikon

Romanian Screenings organizer

November 2014

University of Fribourg

Photographic exhibition organizer: Life through the Lens: Glimpses of People and Places in Post-socialist Romania (student summer school by product)