

Le Prof. Isakov reçoit le Best Paper Award for Capital Markets lors du 2020 New Zealand Finance Colloquium

L'article "What if dividends were tax-exempted? Evidence from a natural experiment" (co-écrit avec C. Pérignon et J.-P. Weiskopf) a été récompensé par le Best Paper Award for Capital Markets. Cette distinction a été obtenue lors du 2020 New Zealand Finance Colloquium qui a eu lieu en février 2020 à Auckland. Il a été attribué par le Ministère néo-zélandais des affaires, de l'innovation et de l'emploi.

Lien vers la conférence : <https://www.nzfc.ac.nz/>

Lien vers l'article: <https://papers.ssrn.com/id=3190485>

The image shows a certificate from the Ministry of Business, Innovation & Employment (MBIE) in New Zealand. The certificate is titled "2020 New Zealand Finance Colloquium" and "Auckland, New Zealand". It is issued by the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (MBIE). The award is for the "Best Paper Award for Capital Markets" for the paper "What if dividends were tax-exempt? Evidence from a natural experiment". The authors listed are Jean-Philippe Weiskopf, Ecole hôtelière de Lausanne; Dušan Isakov, University of Fribourg; and Christophe Pérignon, HEC Paris. The certificate is signed by Associate Professor Aaron Gilbert, Head of Department, Finance, on 14th February 2020. The logo of AUT (Auckland University of Technology) is visible in the top right corner.

 MINISTRY OF BUSINESS, INNOVATION & EMPLOYMENT
HIKINA WHAKATUTUKI

AUT

2020 New Zealand Finance Colloquium
Auckland, New Zealand

The Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (MBIE)

Best Paper Award for Capital Markets

What if dividends were tax-exempt? Evidence from a natural experiment

By: Jean-Philippe Weiskopf, Ecole hôtelière de Lausanne
Dušan Isakov, University of Fribourg
Christophe Pérignon, HEC Paris

Associate Professor Aaron Gilbert
Head of Department, Finance

14th February 2020