

Department of English Studies: Course and Exam Registration

You must register for the courses and seminar papers you have chosen via the MyUnifr portal. We recommend registering for courses as early as possible so that we can send you any necessary information (e.g., Moodle access) before the semester begins. In addition to course registration, exam registration is mandatory for all courses.

*Exams for English Studies courses (course code L06.xxxx) usually take place during the final week of the semester and not during the faculty's official exam session. Therefore, the cancellation deadline differs from the calendar of the Faculty of Humanities.

Course instructors set the exam dates and modalities and communicate them at the beginning of the semester via the Moodle platform and/or the online course catalog.

Please note that deadlines for submitting seminar papers set by instructors are binding.

The detailed examination regulations can be found in the study plan and the student regulations:
