

Exchange Program

An exchange student is defined as an exchange program applicant from a university which has signed the Student Exchange Agreement with the East China University of Political Science and Law.

Courses

In principle, all courses will only be open to the exchange students in the same major and at the same level as the course requires.

To attend English taught courses, students need to achieve a IELTS score of 6.0 or provide proof that they have reached the same level of language proficiency.

a. Legal Courses Taught in English

Course Name	Level	Teaching hours	Semester
Basic Chinese	Postgraduate	54	Spring/Fall
Chinese Civil Law	Postgraduate	54	Spring/Fall
Chinese Company and Securities Law	Postgraduate	54	Spring/Fall
Dispute Settlement Mechanism in International Economic Law	Postgraduate	36	Spring/Fall
Chinese Culture & Chinese Legal Culture	Postgraduate	54	Spring/Fall
Chinese Legal System	Postgraduate	36	Spring/Fall
Intellectual Property Law	Postgraduate	36	Spring/Fall

b. Business Courses Taught in English

Course Name	Level	Teaching hours	Semester
Supply Chain Logistics Management	Undergraduate	32	Fall
Strategic Management	Undergraduate	32	Fall
International Business Law	Undergraduate	32	Fall
Chinese Language	Undergraduate	64	Fall

Electronic Commerce Innovation and Entrepreneurship Management	Undergraduate	32	Fall
---	---------------	----	------

c. Public Administration Courses Taught in English

Course Name	Level	Teaching hours	Semester
Governments and Politics In Contemporary China	Postgraduate	72	Spring/Fall
Political Science	Postgraduate	36	Spring/Fall
Public Management	Postgraduate	54	Spring/Fall

◎ Please be noted that above is subject to changes.

Exchange students whose Chinese language proficiency reaches new HSK5 level can participate in courses taught in Chinese. In addition, for each semester, there might be some short-term courses available to exchange students.

The above course arrangement is only for reference and will be subject to changes according to specific conditions in each semester. The course arrangements made at the beginning of each semester shall prevail.

Transcript

Transcripts of Fall Semester will be issued in March next year, and that of Spring Semester will be issued in September in that very year. The original transcript will be sent directly to relevant department of the exchange student's home university.