

SNSF PhD position in the department
"Systems Neuroscience" of the University of Freiburg / Fribourg

UNIVERSITÉ DE FRIBOURG
UNIVERSITÄT FREIBURG

The Department of Systems Neuroscience at the Faculty of Medicine and Natural Sciences of the University of Freiburg / Fribourg, CH is looking for a doctoral candidate at the earliest possible start. He/she will work in collaboration with the working group on the development of a cortical visual prosthesis in an animal model of blindness. The project is funded by the SNSF. Further information on the working group and the project.

Job profile:

- Very good Master's degree in Psychology, Natural Sciences or Life Sciences
- Very good analytical and statistical knowledge, especially in Matlab
- Enjoyment of working with animals
- Very good knowledge of English, in addition, German and especially French skills are an advantage
- Very high personal commitment

What do we offer?

- Internationally recognized research expertise in the field of optogenetics and electrophysiology
- Integration and collaboration in a productive, international team
- Contact opportunities for renowned international scientists
- Close cooperation with the chair holder
- Excellent training opportunities

The application documents (CV, certificates and a letter of motivation in which you explain on a maximum of two pages why you would like to deal with the research topic; Master's thesis) are to be sent in a PDF file by email to: Prof. Dr. Michael C. Schmid, michael.schmid@unifr.ch. Female applicants are expressly encouraged to apply. Applications will be reviewed until the position is filled.