How to obtain an ORCID identifier

a. ORCID registration/Login

- New User

On registering on the ORCID website; you will be asked for the following information:
<https://orcid.org/>

- Click on the button “register now”
- Input your name, email, and create an ORCID password.
- Choose the visibility setting: Your ORCID ID is always publicly visible, and you control the visibility settings for all other content in your ORCID record
- Check the box for accepting Terms of Use. Then click on the Register button to complete the process.

Register for an ORCID ID

ORCID provides a persistent digital identifier that distinguishes you from every other researcher and, through integration in key research workflows such as manuscript and grant submission, supports automated linkages between you and your professional activities ensuring that your work is recognized.

Per ORCID's terms and conditions, you may only register for an ORCID ID for yourself.

Visibility settings

Your ORCID ID connects with your ORCID record that can contain links to your research activities, affiliations, awards, other versions of your name, and more. You control this content and who can see it. More information on visibility settings.

By default, who should be able to see information added to your ORCID Record?

- Everyone (87% of users choose this)
- Trusted parties (5% of users choose this)
- Only me (8% of users choose this)

Notification settings

ORCID sends email notifications about items related to your account, security, and privacy, including requests from ORCID member organizations for permission to update your record, and changes made to your record by those organizations.

You can also choose to receive emails from us about new features and tips for making the most of your ORCID record.

- Please send me quarterly emails about new ORCID features and tips
To receive these emails, you will also need to verify your primary email address.

After you've registered, you can change your notification settings at any time in the account settings section of your ORCID record.

Terms of Use

- I consent to the privacy policy and terms and conditions of use, including agreeing to my data being processed in the US and being publicly accessible where marked Public.

- After registration, you can now add your publications into your ORCID profile and report your ORCID ID on your personal page on “MyUnifr” see °4.

- Existing user

If you do not remember setting up an account:

- On the webpage: <https://orcid.org/>
- Search for your name in the “Registry” case on the top right of the page.

- If your name is displayed, check that you are behind it.
