Make progress on your English language skills this summer!

For the first time in 40+ years, you can join the University of Nebraska Omaha's intensive English language program online. Though travel is temporarily difficult, we're here to make sure you reach your study goals for the summer. With 3 different levels of classes available, ranging from intermediate to advanced, you can take your language skills to the next level. Our experienced instructors will teach listening, speaking, reading, writing, and grammar. Students can choose to take optional electives in the afternoon, such as cultural comparisons, oral fluency, or reading a novel. You will receive grades and a transcript for successfully completing your course from the university. Interested?
