

Master of China Studies

Open to students from all disciplines!

The University of Fribourg presents a great opportunity to spend one academic year to gain knowledge and expertise on contemporary China, Chinese economy and its practice of business. Full scholarship, medical insurance and monthly allowance are offered!

The program: “China Studies” in two tracks:

- Chinese Business Studies (CBS)
- Chinese Culture and Society (CCS)

offered by Zhejiang University ZJU in Haining, Zhejiang Province.

The Zhejiang province is the third richest province in China. The partnership with the Canton of Fribourg has been signed in 2009 with projects and activities supporting mutual benefits in the fields of economic, tourism and education.

Zhejiang University ZJU has remained one of mainland China’s top 5 universities for more than a decade. Haining International Campus opened its doors in September 2016. The campus is 2-hours away from Hangzhou downtown and about 2.5 hours by train from Shanghai. Hangzhou is considered the beating heart of entrepreneurship in China, a capital of IT and E-commerce: Alibaba, Huawei R&D Park, Microsoft, Panasonic, etc. Shanghai is a metropolis that hosts many international enterprises’ headquarters.

Once selected, each participant will have to be an ambassador of Fribourg’s University.

Here are the teaching subjects.

Core subjects	Track CBS subjects	Track CCS subjects
Mandarin	Innovation management	Social Policy and Social Security in China
Intercultural Competence	Topics on China's Economic Development & Policy	Family and Society in Contemporary China
Lecture Series of China Studies	Introduction to Public Policy and Science/ Technology/ Innovation Policy	Women, Media, and Chinese Society
Chinese Civilization	China's Finance Market and Fintech	In the Process of Modernization
China Studies Seminar (Research Methods & Academic Writing)	Digital Commerce in China	Local Society in Contemporary China
Contemporary Chinese Society and Economics	Practicum: at least 3-month internship	Practicum: Social research project

Graduates will obtain both the degree and diploma of Master of China Studies from Zhejiang University after having completed 24 credits, four book reviews, practicum and thesis.