Step 1: Check my profile
• I am a resident outside of Switzerland
• I hold a doctoral degree completed within the last three years at a foreign university which is recognized by UniFr
• I am currently employed or involved in the research center at a foreign university

Step 2: Contact a UniFr professor
• Identify professor and their research field on faculties’ webpages
• Accepted into the professor’s research group
• Receive an official support letter on which the professor agrees to be the supervisor during my foreseen research stay in Fribourg

Step 3: Identify the duration of my stay and the deadline to apply
• 28th February for a stay that can start between 1st and 15th of September of the same year. (open from 1st October).
• 31st July for a stay that can start between 1st and 15th of February in the following year. (open from 1st May).

Step 4: Online application on INSCRUNI
• Enter into INSCRUNI via the application link on UniFR scholarship website
• Download the application form from INSCRUNI and fill it in
• Prepare all required documents 1-12, see the list
• Upload all required documents including the application form in INSCRUNI

Step 5: Receive the < Confirmation of Acceptance >
• Decide whether to take the scholarship
• Confirm the foreseen arrival date with the supervising professor
• Return to IRO the signed <Confirmation of Acceptance> on which must be indicated the foreseen arrival date

Step 6: As soon as receiving the <Proof of Enrollment > Start visa process and searching for housing
• Read the visa instructions under the <Researcher> section and start ASAP. Visa process as it can take up to three months
• Fulfill and pay for the visa fee via my local Swiss visa center/Consulate/Embassy, who would transfer my application to SPOMI or SEM in Switzerland
• Read the housing suggestions and start the search

Step 7: Follow the <Welcome Guide> to prepare for your arrival

Step 8: (After receiving visa) Arrival in Fribourg
• Attend the Welcome Meeting

My research stay begins

The Commission of the International Relations
