

Current curriculum vitae.

Pier V. Aimone (07/29/1948)

2011- 2021 invited Professor at the faculty of canon law of the Pontifical University Urbaniana (Rome/Vatican)

1991- 2009 Ancient tenure professor of canon at Fribourg University (Switzerland)

2009- 2014 Ancient Justice of ecclesial swiss Tribunal

1985-1987 Ancient professor at the Faculty of civil law (Lateran Pontifical University-Rome/Vatican)

1984-85 ; 1990-91 Ancient jurist (civil servant at the Court of justice of European Union)

1977-78 Ancient teacher (canon law) at Faculty of Theology – Turin- Italy

1992 Habilitation Theology - Canon Law and History of Canon Law - University of Bamberg – Germany

1977 Lawyer by Tribunal of Roman Rota (Pontifical Court in Rome/Vatican)

1976 PhD Canon Law (Lateran Pontifical University – Rome / Vatican)

1974 BA Theology (Faculty of Theology – Turin - Italy)

1971 JD (civil law – University of Turin- Italy)

1977 – 2018 Author of three books and many articles as of critical editions in the field of medieval canon law (see list of publications)

He has worked and taught in italian (Turin and Rome, italian and pontifical universities), in german and french (Bamberg and Fribourg, german and swiss universities), in spanish (UCA, Buenos Aires). He was visiting scholar at University of Adelaide, Australia, Robbin's collection school of Law Berkely University USA, Saint-Louis University, USA). He can english, latin and also ancient greek. He partecipated at some Congresses of medieval canon law or published a contribution in english/italian to the Proceedings (Cambridge, San Diego, Munich, Syracuse, Catania, Washington, Budapest, Toronto).