

PANNONHALMI FŐAPÁTSÁG
A.D. 996

*Active Participation in Communion
Ecumenical Exchange of Experiences concerning the Chances of Synodality*

Conference at Pannonhalma Archabbey

21 October 2022

The programme of the conference

- 10:00 Words of welcome
Archabbot Hortobágyi T. Cirill, Ordinary
Archbishop Michael Wallace Banach, Apostolic Nuncio to Hungary, Titular
Archbishop of Memphis
Bishop Károly Fekete, Bishop of the Transibiscan Reformed Church District
(Debrecen)
- Morning session, presentations.
Chair: Csaba Török, university professor (Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Budapest), catholic priest
- 10:20 Cardinal Mario Grech, Secretary General of the Synod of Bishops
- 10:50 Archbishop Musa Panti Filibus (Lutheran Church of Christ in Nigeria, LCCN),
President of Lutheran World Federation:
A Lutheran reflects on Synodality and Christian Unity
- 11:20 Metropolitan Job (Getcha) of Pisidia, Permanent Representative of the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople to the World Council of Churches:
The Perspectives and Challenges of Primacy and Synodality in the Orthodox Church
Today
- 11:50 Break
- 12:15 Alois Löser, Prior, Community of Taizé:
Becoming creators of unity among Christians ... for the sake of brotherhood in the human family
- 12:45 Johannes Oeldemann, Director, Johann Adam Möhler-Institute (Paderborn):
Learning from the Orthodox Experience of Synodality: Ecumenical Impulses for the Synodal Process in the Roman Catholic Church
- 13:15 Book-presentation

PANNONHALMI FŐAPÁTSÁG

A.D. 996

13:30 Midday Office in the Basilica of Saint Martin

13:45 Lunch in the refectory of the monastery

Afternoon session, presentations – Chair: Kodácsy Tamás, minister of the Reformed Church

14:30 Sabino Chiala, Prior, Monastic Community of Bose:
The communion of saints and the division of Christians: Challenges and perspectives

14:55 Zamfir Korinna, university professor (Babeş–Bolyai University, Faculty of Roman Catholic Theology):
“Conciliarity in the documents of the Ecumenical Council of Churches. Relations, interactions, points of special importance”

15:20 Csermely Péter, member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Lutheran pastor:
“Synodality as Network-Necessity”

15:45 Fazakas Sándor, university professor (University of Theology, Reformed Church, Debrecen), minister of the Reformed Church:
“Koinonia in the theology of the Reformed Church”

16:10 Break

16:30 Roundtable-discussion, coordinated by Görföl Tibor, editor-in-chief, associate professor:
Cardinal Mario Grech,
Metropolitan Job of Pisidia,
Bishop Fabiny Tamás, presiding bishop of the Lutheran Church in Hungary,
Prior Sabino Chialà

18:00 Vespers presided by Cardinal Mario Grech