

The Department of Economics at the University of Fribourg/Switzerland offers a

“Post-Doc” Position in Economics (any field)

Requirements

- Doctoral degree in Economics or a related discipline*
- Promising scientific record, with the potential to publish in top academic journals
- Very good command of German and English or French and English language
- Teaching experience would be an advantage

* If the doctoral degree has not been awarded yet, the PhD dissertation has to be submitted before the position starts and the application must include a positive reference letter of the PhD supervisor.

Start

September 1st 2023 (or later upon agreement)

Duration

Three years, with the possibility for extension for up to 5 years

Responsibilities

- Conduct research and publish in international, peer-reviewed journals
- Teach in the bachelor's and master's program in accordance with the department. The typical teaching load is two courses per academic year.
- Organization of research seminars

Salary

According to the rules of the University of Fribourg. The salary is competitive.

Affiliation

We provide outstanding work conditions, a fruitful research atmosphere, and guidance for an academic career. For further information, please contact Professor Dr. Philippe Gugler, President of the Department of Economics, University of Fribourg; Tel.: (+41) 26 300 8226; Email: philippe.gugler@unifr.ch.

Application

Please send the complete application in a single file named [lastname].pdf by email to philippe.gugler@unifr.ch using “Application Post-Doc 2023” in the subject line. An application consists of a letter of motivation, the CV, the job market paper, the certificates, and the email addresses of two references who are ready to submit a letter of reference upon request.

The University of Fribourg is an equal opportunity employer. Seeking to promote an equitable representation of men and women among its staff, the University strongly encourages applications from women.

The deadline for application is March 15, 2023.