The Principle of Equality in Diverse States

Reconciling Autonomy with Equal Rights and Opportunities

Editors: Eva Maria Belser, Thea Bächler, Sandra Egli, and Lawrence Zünd

This book examines different approaches by which states characterised by federal or decentralised arrangements reconcile equality and autonomy. In case studies from four continents, leading experts analyse the challenges of ensuring institutional, social and economic equality whilst respecting the competences of regions and the rights of groups.

Readership

All those interested in federalism, decentralisation and other forms of diverse states and their practical and theoretical implications.
