

Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces

Book chapter in English on multiculturalism and secularism in Switzerland (15-20 pages)

The Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces (DCAF) is looking for a master student for collaborating on a project on multiculturalism and secularism in Switzerland and Azerbaijan.

We are looking for a highly motivated student, specialised in a relevant subject (international relations, politics, etc) willing to write a text of approx. 15-20 pages in English on different aspects of multiculturalism and secularism in Switzerland.

The chapter written by the successful candidate, along with another chapter on multiculturalism and secularism in Azerbaijan, will be published in 2015. Moreover, the successful candidate will be invited to the official book launch in the DCAF offices in Geneva and Ljubljana.

The successful candidate will be awarded a sum equivalent to USD 1'092.

Deadline for the first version of the text: March 2015

Deadline for the final version of the text: June 2015
