

Institut für Föderalismus
Institut du Fédéralisme
Institute of Federalism

Book Launch

States Falling Apart? Secessionist and Auto- nomy Movements in Europe

3 September 2015, 5 pm
University of Fribourg

with

- Patricia Popelier, University of Antwerp
- Vjosa Musliu, Ghent University
- Eva Maria Belser, University of Fribourg

UNI
FR
■

UNIVERSITÉ DE FRIBOURG
UNIVERSITÄT FREIBURG

Book Launch: “States Falling Apart? Secessionist and Autonomy Movements in Europe” (2015)

The Institute of Federalism is delighted to invite you to the launch to celebrate the publication of “States Falling Apart? Secessionist and Autonomy Movements in Europe” edited by Eva Maria Belser, Alexandra Fang, Nina Massüger and Rekha Oleschak Pillai.

This book is a compilation of papers presented at the international Conference “States Falling Apart? Secessionist and Autonomy Movements in Europe” at the University of Fribourg in 2013 and constitutes a timely addition to the literature on secession, autonomy and federalism. With a wide-array of contributions by renowned scholars like Michael Burgess, Gisela Färber, John Kincaid and Ronald Watts etc. and numerous young scholars from countries confronted with autonomy and secessionist movements, the compilation is of interest to scholars, students and politicians.

Book launch - Programme

- Welcome speech
Prof. Astrid Epiney, Rector University of Fribourg
- States falling apart? Insights from Belgium
Prof. Patricia Popelier, University of Antwerp
- States falling apart? Insights from Kosovo
Dr. Vjosa Musliu, Ghent University

The launch will take place between 5pm and 6pm on Thursday, 3 September 2015 at

University of Fribourg
Pérolles II
Boulevard de Pérolles 90
Fribourg, Switzerland
Room B130, first floor

If you would like to attend the launch then please write to Yvonne Heiter Steiner (yvonne.heiter-steiner@unifr.ch) by 23 August 2015.

For more information: www.federalism.ch