

China : New Partnership

30.03.2012

FACULTÉ DE DROIT / Université de Fribourg
Bureau Erasmus et des relations internationales

Registration is now open to spend a study period in Shanghai during the academic year 2012/2013 at the East China University of Political Science and Law.

The East China University of Political Science and Law

The East China University of Political Science and Law (ECUPL) is located in Shanghai, the economic center of the People's Republic of China. The university, founded in 1952, is the largest and most prestigious law school in the East China region. While specialized in legal education, ECUPL also offers programs in economics, foreign languages and management. The university currently has a student population of more than 10,000 including students of graduate, undergraduate, and adult programs.

Program taught in English – International Economic Law

The program is intended for non-Chinese citizens committed to career of legal practices in international investment, international trade and relevant Chinese Laws. It mainly focuses on international law, economic law in China and Chinese legal practices, in order to promote the students' abilities to deal with legal issues concerning trade and investment in China.

Chinese language program

The program provide students, no matter beginners or student with limited knowledge of Chinese, with a systematic study of general Chinese, professional Chinese, Chinese culture, cross-cultural communication.

Application procedure

Application deadline: 16.04.2012 (for a stay during the academic year 2012/2013 / 1 or 2 semesters)

Application file composed of:

- Application form (available Formulaire 2012/13 - Formular 2012/13)
- Documents required on the application form
- Curriculum vitae with picture
- Statement of interest

Application file must be sent to : Bureau Erasmus et des relations internationales de la Faculté de droit, 20, avenue de l'Europe, 1700 Fribourg

A selection committee will process the applications and candidates will be informed promptly.