

Workshop

On Testimony and Beyond

November 6, 2020, University of Fribourg, Miséricorde
Room: MIS04 4112 (Salle Jäggi)

09:30-10:15 Tanja Rechnitzer (Bern)

Public Understanding of Science as a Goal of Science Communication

10:15-11:00 Federica Malfatti (Innsbruck)

Do we deserve credit for everything we understand?

11:30-12:15 Isabel Kaeslin (Fribourg)

Personal Boundaries and (Gendered)
Justice

13:45-14:30 Laura Silva (Geneva)

Oppressive Testimony

14:30-15:15 Melanie Altanian (Dublin)

Testimonial Injustice through Moral Ignorance:
A moral or epistemic failure, or one in virtue of the other?

15:45-16:30 Maude Ouellette-Dubé (Fribourg)

Moral compass or moral GPS: what does the puzzle of moral testimony really teach us about moral agency?

16:30-17:15 Magalie Schor (Geneva)

Learning from others how to be epistemically virtuous

Organized by Tanja Rechnitzer and Maude Ouellette-Dubé

Please note that the current sanitary conditions force us to reduce the number of possible attendees. If you wish to attend, please contact tanja.rechnitzer@philo.unibe.ch.